Two of the chords used this week are E7 and A7. If you can already play the chords A and E then you're half-way there, as all you need to do is take away one finger! Turning them into 7th chords gives them a bit of a country / rock'n'roll twang. Here's two wee videos on how to play each chord:

The Blues Corner:

This week we are introducing a new section where local musician Duncan Paterson teaches us a great tune. This week it's the Johnny Cash song 'Don't take your guns to town'.

Weekly Poetry (Lunes – 3/5/3)

We have been working on a type of poetry that uses a structure where you just write 3 lines.

It's simple, 3 words on the 1st line, 5 words on the 2nd line, 3 words on the 3rd line. That's it!

See how you go and you can maybe share them on a weekly basis. Example:

*What will happen
When the grey sky turns
Like a dancer*

And finally, if you are looking for something to watch check out this documentary about world-renowned Malian musician Ali Farka Touré:
