

This week's playlist:

Me and Bobby McGee, Rockin' all over the world, Take it easy, Ticket to ride

Listen and play along by clicking on the playlist here:

www.soundcloud.com/miltonartsproject/online-milton-music-sessions-week-six

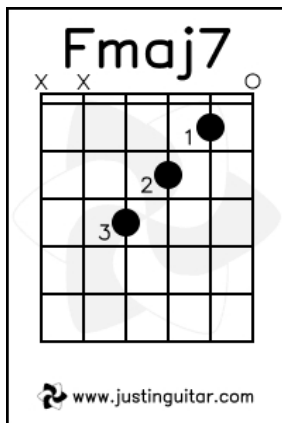

Find the chord sheets & all links here:

www.miltonartsproject.com/worksheets

In 'Ticket to Ride' we use a chord called Fmaj7.

If you're not familiar with this chord then here's a short lesson and video on how to play it:

www.justinguitar.com/guitar-lessons/the-f-maj7-chord-bc-142

Don't forget the E minor pentatonic scale!
And if any of you managed to write a four chord song we'd love to hear it! :-)

Weekly Poetry (Lunes – 3/5/3)

We have been working on a type of poetry that uses a structure where you just write 3 lines.

It's simple, 3 words on the 1st line, 5 words on the 2nd line, 3 words on the 3rd line. That's it!

See how you go and you can maybe share them on a weekly basis. Example:

What will happen, When the grey sky turns, Like a dancer

And finally, here's Dave Brubeck performing 'Take Five':

www.youtube.com/watch?v=PHdU5sHigYQ

"Written in the key of E^b minor, "Take Five" is known for its distinctive two-chord piano/bass vamp, catchy blues-scale saxophone melodies; inventive, jolting drum solo; and unorthodox quintuple 5/4 time, from which Dave Brubeck derived its name." Can you hear the time signature working?