

Maggie May – Rod Stewart

Verse 1:           D                           C                           G
Wake up Maggie I think I've got something to say to you
          D                           C                           G
It's late September and I really should be back at school
          C                           G                           C                           D
I know I keep you amused But I feel I'm being used
          Am                           D
Oh Maggie I couldn't have tried any more
          Am                           D                           Am                           D
You led me away from home just to save you from being alone
          Am                           D                           G
You stole my heart, and that's what really hurts

Verse 2:           D                           C                           G
The morning sun when it's in your face really shows your age
          D                           C                           G
But that don't worry me none, in my eyes you're everything
          C                           G                           C                           D
I laughed at all your jokes, my love you didn't need to coax
          Am                           D
Oh Maggie I couldn't have tried any more
          Am                           D                           Am                           D
You led me away from home just to save you from being alone
          Am                           D                           G
You stole my soul that's a pain I can do without

Verse 3:           D                           C                           G
All I needed was a friend to lend a guiding hand
          D                           C                           G
But you turned into a lover and mother what a lover you wore me out
          C                           G                           C                           D
All you did was wreck my bed, And in the morning kick me in the head
          Am                           D
Oh Maggie I couldn't have tried any more
          Am                           D                           Am                           D
You led me away from home 'cause you didn't want to be alone
          Am                           D                           G
You stole my heart I couldn't leave you if I tried

Verse 4:           D                           C                           G
I suppose I should collect my books and go back to school
          D                           C                           G
Or steal my daddy's cue make a living out of playing pool
          C                           G                           C                           D
Or find myself a rock and roll band that needs a helping hand
          Am                           D
Oh Maggie, I wish I'd never seen your face
          Am                           D                           Am                           D
You made a first class fool out of me, but I'm as blind as a fool can be
          Am                           D                           G
You stole my heart but I love you anyway
