In 'Sunshine On Leith' we play the chord G7 in the verse. You can get away with playing the basic G chord, but if you want to learn how to play G7 (with C7 and B7 thrown in too) here's a video to show you how: www.youtube.com/watch?v=xWkXb8jt82g

Weekly Poetry (Lunes – 3/5/3)

We have been working on a type of poetry that uses a structure where you just write 3 lines.

It's simple, 3 words on the 1st line, 5 words on the 2nd line, 3 words on the 3rd line. That's it!

See how you go and you can maybe share them on a weekly basis. Example:

What will happen, When the grey sky turns, Like a dancer

And finally, a couple of things to watch:

Sister Rosetta Tharpe. She has been described as the woman who invented Rock n Roll.

Artist Cai Guo Qiang (Borrowing Your Enemy's Arrows).
